Any objection or suggestion which may be received from any person with respect to the said draft before the date so specified will be considered by the Central Government

Draft Rules

1. Short title.—These rules may be called the Customs and Central Excise Duties Drawback (Toilet Products) Rules, 1958.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (a) "Collector" means the Collector of Central Excise in whose jurisdiction the exporter's manufacturing premises are situated.
- (b) "drawback" means drawback of customs duty and includes rebate of excise duty;
- (c) "excisable articles" means vegetable non-essential oils and paper on which excise duty has been paid;
- (d) "exporter" means the person who exports the goods manufactured by him and who is registered as such under rule 5 of these rules;
- (e) "Form" means a Form appended to these rules;
- (f) "goods" means soap, shampoo and perfumed oil manufactured in India or the State of Pondicherry and in the manufacture of which imported materials or excisable articles or both have been used;

- (g) "imported material" means oil, chemicals, paper and perfumery imported into India or the State of Pondicherry on payment of customs duty.

3. Goods in respect of which drawback may be allowed.—Subject to the provisions of the Sea Customs Act, 1878 (8 of 1878) and the Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944 (I of 1944) and of these rules, and subject also to such of the provisions of the Central Excise Rules, 1944, as may be applicable in this behalf, a drawback shall be allowed in respect of the following, on the export of the goods from India or the State of Pondicherry, or their shipment as stores for use on board a ship proceeding to a foreign port;

- (a) imported material used in the manufacture of the goods;
- (b) excisable articles used in the manufacture of the goods;
- (c) in the case of soap, the excise duty paid thereon.

4. Rate of drawback.—(i) The rate of drawback admissible under these rules on the shipment of the goods shall be the average customs and excise duty paid respectively on the imported material and on the excisable articles, used in the manufacture of the goods as well as the excise duty, if any, paid on the goods themselves.

(ii) Such rate shall be determined by the Central Government at such intervals as the Government may consider necessary on the basis of the information furnished by the manufacturers of the goods, and verified by the Government in respect of the said duties paid during such period as in the opinion of the Government is relevant for the purpose.

5. The exporter to get himself registered.—The exporter of the goods shall apply in writing in Form A for registration to the Collector, and shall similarly get the registration renewed in the month of January every year.

6. Declaration on shipping bill on production of invoice.—The exporter shall, at the time of the shipment of the goods,

- (a) make a declaration on the relative shipping bill that a claim for drawback is being made under these Rules; and
- (b) furnish the Customs Collector with a copy of the shipment invoice or any other document giving particulars of the description, quantity and value of the goods under shipment.

7. Procedure for grant of drawback.—In order to obtain payment of drawback, the exporter shall prepare an application in Form B, and present it to the Collector within six months of the date of entry of the goods for shipment, together with the bill of lading or shipping bill duly certified by an officer of Customs to the effect that the goods have in fact been exported.

8. The Collector may disallow drawback.—If the goods are not exported, or the proof of export is not furnished to the satisfaction of the Collector, in the prescribed manner and within the prescribed time limit, the Collector may in his discretion disallow the whole or any part of the claim for the drawback.

9. Powers of the Collector.—For the purpose of enforcing these rules, the Collector may require the exporter to produce any books of accounts or other documents relating to the proportion and quantity of the imported material or excisable articles used in the manufacture of the goods and the duty paid thereon.

10. Access to manufactory.—The exporter of the goods in respect of which a drawback is claimed under these rules shall give access to every part of the manufactory to any officer of the Central Government specially authorised in this behalf by the Collector or the Central Board of Revenue, to enable the officer so authorised to inspect the processes of manufacture and to verify by actual check or otherwise the statements made in support of the claim for drawback.

MINISTRY OF TRANSPORT AND COMMUNICATIONS*(Department of Transport)*(Transport Wing)MERCHANT SHIPPINGNew Delhi, the 7th January 1958

S.R.O. 222.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 6 of the Merchant Shipping Laws (Extension to Acceding States and Amendment) Act, 1949 (18 of 1949), the Central Government hereby declares that, except as hereinafter provided, a Red Ensign consisting of a red flag with a width one-half of its length and the National Flag of India superimposed in the top quarter next to the staff shall be the proper national colours for all ships registered in India (including vessels employed as merchant ships, belonging to or employed in the service of a public office of any Ministry or Department of the Central Government or a State Government which are so registered), and for all vessels which are not registered in India or in any British possession but are owned exclusively by persons domiciled in India or by bodies corporate established in India:

Provided that a Blue Ensign consisting of a royal blue flag with a width one-half of its length and the National Flag of India superimposed in the top quarter next to the staff, shall be the proper national colours for such ships and vessels as aforesaid which comply with the regulations annexed hereto and which are authorised by the Chief of the Naval Staff by Warrant under his hand to wear such Blue Ensign:

Provided further that the Blue Ensign as aforesaid defaced on the fly by the badge of office of the Port Trust or Port Administration concerned (the defacing being done in light golden colour) shall be the proper national colours for vessels, whether registered or unregistered in India, belonging to or employed in the service of a public office of any Port Trust constituted as a body corporate under any law for the time being in force and for vessels registered in India belonging to any Port Administration not so constituted.

The Notification of the Government of India in the late Ministry of Transport No. 73-MA(2)/49, dated the 22nd January 1952 shall stand superseded with effect from the date of publication of this Notification.

REGULATIONS

Indian Merchant Ships will be allowed to wear the Blue Ensign as aforesaid, plain and undefaced, when the following conditions are fulfilled.

- (a) The Officer Commanding the ship must be an officer of the Indian Naval Reserve.
- (b) The crew must include (in addition to the Commanding Officer) Officers and men of the Indian Naval Reserve to the number specified from time to time by Naval Headquarters, but Officers on their retired or emergency list of the Indian Navy may be included in the number specified.
- (c) Before hoisting the Blue Ensign, the Officer Commanding the ship must be provided with a Warrant of the Chief of the Naval Staff.
- (d) The fact that the Commanding Officer holds a Warrant authorising him to hoist the Blue Ensign must be noted on the ship's Articles of Agreement.

2. Failure to fulfil conditions.—Commanding Officers failing to fulfil any of the above conditions, unless such failure is due to death or other circumstances over which they have no control, will no longer be entitled to fly the Blue Ensign.

3. Subsidized Merchant Ships.—Indian Merchant ships in receipt of Ministry of Defence (Navy) subvention and exclusively in their service will be allowed to wear the Blue Ensign under Warrant of the Chief of the Naval Staff with any badge that may be prescribed in the Warrant.

4. In order to ascertain that the above conditions are strictly carried out the Captain of one of Indian Navy's ships meeting a ship wearing the Blue Ensign may send on board an officer not below the rank of lieutenant at any convenient opportunity. This restriction as to the rank of the boarding officer in no way limits or otherwise affects the authority or the duties of Naval officers under Merchant Shipping Acts or in time of war.

5. Applications for permission to wear the Blue Ensign in Indian Merchant ships employed exclusively under the orders of the Ministry of Defence (Navy) should be made direct to the Naval Headquarters by the owners, and for other Indian merchant ships applications should be made through the Director General of Shipping, Bombay.
